

SHL House Sarajevo:

Your place for learning, adventure, and community!

The SHL House in Sarajevo offers young people between the ages of 14 and 30 a unique place to stay for school trips, study groups, and NGOs. Whether for seminars, workshops, or youth trips – the SHL House combines learning, intercultural exchange, and unforgettable experiences in a city full of history and diversity.

The house was built in 1999 by young German volunteers to provide a neutral meeting place for young people, regardless of their ethnic or religious affiliation.

All proceeds from the SHL House go towards youth projects of the Schüler Helfen Leben Foundation in Bosnia and Herzegovina.
